FROM DEAN CHAPMAN

SUMMER REGISTRATION

The list of closed courses and sections for the summer session is posted on the second floor bulletin board. If a course you registered for is not closed, you can assume you are enrolled in it. If a course you registered for is closed, you can check to see if you are enrolled with the self-serve computer in the Registrar's office. Schedules will be mailed this week.

You may add an open course at any time through the first week of summer classes. You may drop a course from your schedule at any time before the final exam, but if you drop during the second week of summer classes, you will be charged 50% of tuition and if you drop after the second week, you will be charged full tuition.

FALL REGISTRATION

Registrations Forms and Bulletin Available This Week

Fall Registration begins next Monday, April 17, 1995. You may pick up your registration forms for fall beginning Wednesday, April 12 in the Registrar's office. The Registration Bulletin with registration instructions, the final version of the schedule, course descriptions for courses not listed in the Law School Bulletin, biographies of new faculty members, and other information will be distributed by Wednesday. The final exam schedule for fall courses was distributed last week; copies are available in the Registrar's office.

Unpaid Tuition

If your tuition is not fully paid, there will be a note attached to your registration form stating that you have a "Bursar's hold." If you have a Bursar's hold, you will not be permitted to registrar until the hold is released. Please see the "Fall Registration Unpaid Tuition Balance" item under Special Notices in this Record. The university's head Bursar, Julie Collins, will be in the law school Bursar's office, Room 290, on Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18 from 2:30 to 6:00 p.m. to discuss tuition problems with students. Students should continue to seek assistance from Bursar Coordinator Gina Regis in 290 or by emailing Assistant Dean Dawn Rupcich.

Bursar's Stamp and Tuition Deposit

Even if your tuition is fully paid, you must have the Bursar stamp your registration form before you submit it to the Registrar. A $300 deposit must be paid to the Bursar unless financial aid will cover all of your tuition. A word to the wise: avoid the long line that inevitably forms at the Bursar's office during registration. Pick up your registration form from the Registrar's office as soon as it is available on Wednesday, pay your $300 and have the form stamped by the Bursar as soon as you can. Your course selections don't have to be filled in on the form to obtain the Bursar's stamp.

Advanced Research and Legal Drafting Sections

A list of Advanced Research and Legal Drafting sections is attached to this Record. Additional sections of Legal Drafting will be added to the schedule.

Certificate Students in Environmental Law and International Law

A list of the students seeking an Environmental Law or International Law certificate is posted on the Registrar's bulletin board. These students will have priority for certain sections of Advanced Research. If your name is missing from the Environmental certificate list, see Steve Manley in Room 823; if it is not on the International list, see Matt Alex in the Registrar's office.

Professors' Opinions on Which Courses You Should Take

I distributed a questionnaire to the faculty last fall asking them to indicate which courses they felt every student should take regardless of his or her particular areas of interest and the courses a student should take if interested in specializing in a particular substantive area. The responses were attached to last week's Record.

Intensive Trial Advocacy

The names of the students eligible to register for Intensive Trial Advocacy, both the August, 1995 Intellectual Property course and the January, 1996 regular intensive course are posted on the second floor bulletin board. ### 17th Annual Piper Lecture:

The Tensions Between Regulating Workplace Harassment and the First Amendment

This week, Tuesday!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

On Tuesday, April 11, Chicago-Kent will present the 17th Annual Kenneth M. Piper Lecture The Tensions Between Regulating Workplace Harassment and the First Amendment in the Richard B. Ogilvie Auditorium at 11:30 a.m.

Over the years the courts have interpreted Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and other equal employment opportunity statutes to impose liability for harassment which creates a hostile work environment for women, minorities and other members of protected classes. A hostile environment may be created not only by physical acts and gestures, but also by statements and other communications by supervisors, co-workers and, in some cases, customers.

The imposition of liability for the consequences of communication implicates the First Amendment's guarantees of free speech and free exercise of religion.

The Piper Lecture speakers will focus on the potential tensions between the EEO policy of eliminating harassment from the workplace and the First Amendment. The speakers include:

Nadine Strossen, Professor of Law at New York Law School and National President of the American Civil Liberties Union. She is the author of a book entitled DEFENDING PORNOGRAPHY: FREE SPEECH, SEX AND THE FIGHT FOR WOMEN'S RIGHTS. She has been awarded the first "Richard S. Arnold Prize for Distinguished Scholarship in Freedom of Expression," by the Speech-Communications Association. Professor Strossen serves on the Boards of Directors for the National Coalition Against Censorship, and the National Coalition for Public Education and Religious Liberty; and the Advisory Board for Feminists for Free Expression.

Gilbert F. Casellas, Chair of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Prior to appointment to the EEOC, Mr. Casellas was appointed by President Clinton to the position of general counsel of the United States Department of the Air Force. Before entering public service, Mr. Casellas was a partner at the law firm of Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads in Philadelphia. He has served as chair of the Board of Governors of the Philadelphia Bar Association, national president of the Hispanic National Bar Association, and as special counsel to the Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations.

Linda S. Greene, Professor of Law at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where she teaches Constitutional Law, Legislation, and Civil and Constitutional Rights seminars. Professor Greene began her legal career as a civil rights attorney at the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund in New York. She has served as counsel to the United States Senate Judiciary Committee, where she specialized in judicial confirmation, federal courts, constitutional law and civil rights issues. Professor Greene has written on a wide range of issues including constitutional equality, civil rights laws, presidential and congressional powers, and sports law. She is currently chair of the Legislation Committee of the U.S. Olympic Committee. She appears frequently on television and radio as a constitutional law expert and political commentator.

Please plan to attend.

Review Sessions for Professor Sherman's Fall Exams

Any students interested in reviewing their performance on last fall's final examinations in Employee Benefits Law or Federal Transfer Taxes should consult the sign-up sheet on Professor Sherman's office door (Room 741).

Prof. Steinman's Appellate Courts Course

In the fall, I will be teaching an Appellate Courts course I have not offered before (although a somewhat similar course occasionally has been taught by others). The course description follows. If you are interested in litigation, this course would be useful to you.

Course Description: Appellate Courts, Prof. Joan Steinman -- Appellate courts make important case law decisions and supervise courts below them in the judicial hierarchy. This course will examine the functions of appeals and appellate courts, and the process of appellate review: appellate jurisdiction, standing to appeal, timing of review, vehicles for obtaining review, the breadth and depth of review, and appellate lawmaking. The course also will consider the structure of our appellate courts, and how those courts and Congress have responded, and may in the future respond, to the threat to function posed by the increasing volume of appeals. The course will acquaint students with the contemporary role of appellate counsel and with the U.S. Supreme Court's certiorari policies and practices. Although federal courts will be the main focus, many of the matters discussed also will be pertinent to state appellate systems. Three credit hours.

Fall 1995 Clinical Course

"Interviewing and Counseling Teaches Real-World Law Skills"

Students who have taken part in the Advice Desk clinic at the Daley Civic Center say it helped them polish their interviewing skills and learn to quickly evaluate a case under the pressure of a line of waiting clients.

The experience of drafting motions helps students find out how the court system really works outside of the classroom, said Brian Kalata, who has formed his own general practice since graduating from Chicago-Kent. Kalata, who said the first few weeks were "scary," now says the clinic was one of the best things he did during law school.

"All law students should experience the Advice Desk because it gives you more hands-on experience," said Kent graduate Audrey Wade, who added that the practice will serve her well for her plans to become a litigator. "It's a bridge from academia to the real world."

The clinic, an outgrowth of a Chicago Bar Association volunteer program, handles mostly contract and forcible entry and detainer cases. Working at the clinic, an elective course, is coupled with an interviewing and counseling class."

The lecture is at 10:30 a.m. at Hermann Hall Auditorium on IIT's Main Campus, 3241 S. Federal Street, Chicago.

Goldin has served as Administrator of NASA since April 1992. He has overseen the redesign of the proposed international space station and brought the Russians into the program as a full partner. In February, the space shuttle Discovery and the Russian space station Mir joined in a maneuver, the first American-Russian meeting in space since 1975.

Current efforts to develop a truly revolutionary reusable launch vehicle and shoebox-sized, highly autonomous science spacecraft are examples of low-cost, high-ambition programs at NASA. In revitalizing NASA's aeronautics program, Goldin has forged new partnerships with the American aviation industry.

Before coming to NASA, Goldin was vice president and general manager of the TRW Space & Technology Group in Redondo Beach, CA. During his 25 years at TRW, he successfully managed the development of more than a dozen spacecraft and associated advanced technologies and space science instruments.

This Week's Tutorial

When you are researching the law of another country and decide that you would like to know more about that country--its economy, its people, current happenings--you can find it in the Chicago-Kent Law Library. Come to this week's tutorial on Finding Country Information to learn where all of this information, in both manual and online sources, can be found.

The schedule for this week's tutorials given by members of the library's reference staff is posted on the library bulletin board. You don't have to sign up; just show up by the reference area. The sessions last about 20 minutes each.

If you want to suggest any tutorial topics or a change in times, please email Lenore Glanz at LGLANZ. We will be happy to hear from you.

Foreign Country Information on the Internet

In conjunction with the tutorial being offered this week, we would also like to encourage students to find foreign country information on the Internet. ## Library Service Desk

The command center for the library is the Library Service Desk at the Ninth Floor entrance. Services available from library assistants, who usually sit closest to the door, include making your study room reservations, checking to see if your desired book is checked out, locating faculty reserve materials for you, and telling you where specific materials are located in the library.

At the other end of the Library Service Desk is the Reference Desk area. The reference librarians can help you with research questions, assist you in structuring a LEXIS or Westlaw search, show you how to get on the Internet, help you with LOIS, walk you through your first attempt at researching legislative history and suggest alternative sources if you can't find the one you want.

Stop by to say hello or introduce yourself.

New on LEXIS and WestLaw

Lexis has a new command. If you find a case you like, you can use .more to retrieve more cases. There is also a new library, MEXICO, which includes legislative and judicial developments in Spanish and news and business information in English. WestLaw has new databases based on documents now filed electronically with the SEC. These are EDGAR and COMPANY and are sources of company information.

NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS

Virus Alert

Do you have a VIRUS on your disk? The Center for Law and Computers has installed a special computer in the front of Lab 700 that can remove most viruses from your disks. Put the infected disk in the drive and press any key; then follow the instructions on the menu. After you have cleaned your disk, turn off the workstation that reported the virus; turn it back on and check your disk. If it still has a virus after you have done all this, email HELPDESK. Kentnet computers lock out disks that are infected with a virus. With your help, we can make computer viruses a distant memory here at Chicago-Kent.

Back Up Your Work

Remember to back up your work often. Your floppy disks are subjected to a lot of stress, and they can go bad over time. We strongly recommend that you always use two disks for your work and other important documents. You should save copies of the same files on both disks. That way, if one disk gets a virus or goes bad, you won't have lost all your work. To save a file on a backup disk, save the file on your primary disk, swap disks in the drive and save it again using the same file name. Besides printing out your work, this is the only way you can be reasonably certain that your data will be there when you need it.

And More Thank You's

Chicago-Kent students, Sharice Green and September Wynne, were also invaluable in contributing to the success of TECHSHOW95 held at the Sheraton Hotel and Tower over Spring Break. All of the participating Chicago-Kent students helped make TECHSHOW95 the best ever: over 1,100 lawyers and firm MIS staff were in attendance. The success of this conference is due, in large part, to the enthusiasm and graciousness of the Chicago-Kent students.

LAW OFFICES FALL REGISTRATION FOR IN-HOUSE PROGRAMS

FALL 1995 APPLICATIONS ARE NOW AVAILABLE IN ROOM 600
DUE NO LATER THAN THURSDAY, APRIL 13

Students who would like to learn how to practice law while they are in law school should apply for the in-house clinical education program, LAW OFFICES. Applications are now available for the fall. The fall applications are due no later than April 13.

Students may apply for Law Offices after they have completed their first year of law school (current first years may apply for the fall 1995 semester). To be considered for a place, ALL students must complete and return a completed Law Offices application. Applications must be turned in to the Law Offices receptionist in Suite 600 by the April 13 deadline.

Students who have previously taken, who are now taking Law Offices, or who will take Law Offices during the summer 1995 semester (called Continuing Law Offices Students) and who submit their applications by the due date will be given preference in their same practice group if availability permits. Next, priority will be given to the top ten students on each first choice waiting list who did not turn down a place for Fall 1995, who were on the waiting list in the division they have marked as first choice, and who submitted their spring application by the due date. New students who have submitted their applications by the due date will be selected in the Law Offices lottery. The total number of available places during the fall semester is dependent upon the number of supervising attorneys in each practice group. The number of available new places is dependent upon the number of continuing students and has not yet been determined.

The in-house program is comprised of two components. One is a three credit fieldwork class graded on a pass/fail basis in which students work in practice groups on client cases or similar projects assigned to them by a supervising attorney. The fieldwork component also includes practice group lectures, supervising attorney conferences, section meetings, and various client interview experiences. The other is a graded classroom component for one credit.

There are six in-house practice groups from which to choose - employment discrimination/civil rights with some general practice, criminal defense, commercial litigation, transactions (non-litigation), immigration, and tax (prerequisites are Personal Income Tax and Tax Procedure). This year we are offering two additional practice groups with funding from a Department of Education grant - Health Law, and Mediation & Other ADR Procedures. If the grant is funded for a second year, these two practice groups will be offered in the fall semester.

For more information, you may talk to the clinical professors who supervise the various practice groups - Professors Gonzalez (Rm. 629), Norton (Rm. 623), and Schwartz (Rm. 611) for employment discrimination/civil rights with some general practice; Professors Kadish (Rm. 613), Kling (Rm. 625), and Thomas (Rm. 609) for criminal defense; Professor Smith (Rm. 690) for commercial litigation; Professor Lemberis (Rm. 688) for transactions (non litigation); Professor Benítez (Rm. 627) for immigration; and Professors Brown (Rm. 615) and Livingston (Rm. 694) for tax. Professor Laser (Room 631) is also available to answer your questions.

RE: CRITICAL INFORMATION REGARDING:
FINANCIAL AID AND MERIT-AND-NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

The 1995-1996 financial aid application forms are now available in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230.

The time of year has arrived for you to begin the process of applying for financial aid for the 1995-1996 academic year. Please take note of the calendar of important dates below; I suggest that you save this memo for future reference. Your financial aid, whether a loan and/or a merit-and-need-based scholarship, depends on it.

We have prepared folders containing the applications, as well as information to assist you with the application process. Please be sure to read through the entire packet. The application packets can be obtained in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230.

Please note that the Monday, April 3, 1995 deadline is the first day after spring break (the dates for spring break are March 25, 1995 - April 2, 1995). If you plan to leave town, please be sure that you arrange to have your application materials in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid no later than Monday, April 3, 1995.

To be eligible for all forms of financial aid you must meet the deadlines listed below.

Calendar of Important Dates:

By April 3

1. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) should be received by the processor no later than Monday, April 3, 1995. A preaddressed envelope is enclosed in the FAFSA booklet. Plan to mail it in sufficient time to meet the deadline.
2. Your Chicago-Kent College of Law Financial Aid Application should be received by the Chicago-Kent College of Law Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230, no later than Monday, April 3, 1995. All sections of the application must be complete in order for them to be accepted.

NOTE: Monday, April 3, 1995 is a strict deadline. This deadline is the cutoff date for determining the allocation of merit-and-need-based scholarships.

By May 15

1. After you file the FAFSA, you will be sent the Student Aid Report (SAR). All pages of the SAR should be in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid by Monday, May 15, 1995, even though it will say that you are not eligible for the Pell Grant (Pell Grants are for undergraduates only). Be sure to complete the Student's Use Box on the back of page one of the SAR.

Corrections: If you need to make corrections to your SAR, please call the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at (312) 906-5180 because our office may be able electronically correct the errors.

2. If you are selected for Verification, you will be asked to submit copies of your tax forms and a Verification Statement, which are available in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. If you are selected for Verification, our office will automatically send the Verification Worksheet upon receiving your Student Aid Report (SAR). These materials and your SAR must be returned before a financial aid award will be determined for you.

By June 30

1. You are expected to turn in student loan applications from the lender of your choice by June 30. Loan applications for Law Access, LAWLOANS, Chase Manhattan, and any Illinois bank are available in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230. However, the office has a limited supply of applications so it is best to contact your lender directly to obtain the necessary application.

2. You should sign and return your financial aid award letter to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid within three weeks of the date printed on the letter.

We are ready to help if you need assistance--just call the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at (312) 906-5180.

Thank you for your cooperation. Continuing students are eligible to receive both need-and-merit-based and merit-only scholarships. Merit-only scholarships do not require a financial aid application. If you are only interested in these merit-only scholarships, you do not need to apply for financial aid. However, if you want to be considered for need-and-merit-based scholarships, then you must complete all of the financial aid forms, even if you are not planning to take out student loans. Need-and-merit-based awards constitute a larger dollar amount than merit-only awards.

Description for Advanced Research for the Legal Scholar

This is a new section for students who are interested scholarly writing. This interest may arise from a desire to participate in writing competitions, or because a student is considering teaching law at the undergraduate or graduate level as a career. As with all the other Advanced Research sections, the course will cover the legislative process and legislative histories, researching administrative materials, using specialized on-line research tools, the internet, the World Wide Web, and the costs of legal research. There will be special emphasis on doing empirical research for scholarly studies, and on researching questions of theory and jurisprudence. Rather than two shorter assignments, the written component of the course will be a case note or comment which would be suitable for publication. The course will also include advice on how to submit articles for publication to law reviews and professional journals.
